ENGLISH COMMON LAW REPORTS. ENGLISH Commister index to the first 47 vols.

57 volumes, with a complete index to the first 47 vols.

Since volume 39 of this series, The English Common Law Reports have been reprinted in full. With volume 44 we commenced binding each English volume separately, instead of, as formerly, two English in one American volume.

Price per set for the first 43 vols. $3.50 per vol.

The reputation which these Reports maintain in The reputation which these Reports manual in England and in the United States, is known to all the Profession. The low price at which they are offered, compared with the rates of some of the principal American Reports, of even inferior merit, recommends them particularly to the attention of those purchasing libraries.

A GENERAL INDEX To the first forty-seven volumes of THE ENGLISH COMMON LAW REPORTS. By Hon. George Sharswood and George W. Bid-cessible, these Reports will be loaded as controlled with convenient, and cheap, as to supersede the necessity of other and more expensive series.

The Index will be found of great value to all possessing the reports; and of great convenience to those having access to, but not owning the series.

White, esq. Further Revised and Abridged, with Additions and Notes for the Use of American Students. By Simeon Greenleaf, LL. D.

'No work which has appeared for a long time will be more valuable to students or to the profession generally."—Lane Reporter.

"Mr. Greenleaf's part in the work is not merely well, it is dimirably, done. His notes are full of learning, carefully considered, and of most commendable brevity. He has had no ambition to magnify his office. He has not encumbered his pages with a showy display of cheap learning, nor imposed upon the profession the necessity of purchasing a mass of speculative discussion, of no practical utility.

The whole work, edited throughout as the first two volumes have been, will be one of the most valuable gifts ever bestowed upon one of the most valuable gifts ever bestowed upon elegal profession, and will add essentially to Mr. cenleat's already extended reputation."—North American Review.

2. ANGELL ON COMMON CARRIERS.—One

evo. A Treatise on the Law of Carriers of its and Passengers by Land and Water. By Joseph K. Angell.

"His work will be valuable to every practising of these first impressions."—Law Reporter. "It is a monument of industry, learning and rearch, which will prove of great utility in the ractice of law and in the business of life, and, we practice of law and in the business of life, and, we think, cannot fail to add to the well-carnod faine which Mr. Angeli has already acquired as a lawyer and writer on many important and interesting subjects connected with his profession."

[Providence Daily Journal.

"The subject is treated in a practical, plain and intelligible manner, and the book may be carefully consulted by the business man as well as by the lawyer."—Boston Daily Advertiser.

3. CURTIS ON PATENTS.—A Treatise on the Law of Patents for Useful Inventions in the United States of America, and the Remedies for their Infringement. By George T. Curtis, Counsellor at Law. 1 vol., 8vo. "The treatise of Mr. Curtis is thoroughly American, and it is practical. It is valuable, not only to gentiemen of the law, but to the originators and proprietors of useful inventions generally. It is systematically prepared, and can be consulted with readiness by those not familiar with law books."

of all the Cases in the three volumes of the United States Digest, and the two volumes of the Supplement, alphabetically arranged, with References for each Case to the volume and page of the Re-ports whence the Case is taken, and to the volume and page of the Digest where it is found; thus unking an Index of Cases as well for all the Reperts in the United States, as for the United States bigest. By George P. Sanger, Counsellor at Law.

"We speak from personal knowledge, and after a thorough examination, when we say, that this work has been executed with the most remarkable fidelity and accuracy. To form an idea of the magnitude of the task, it may not be amiss to say that it contains between fifty and sixty thousand cases. These are alphabetically arranged, and the refer-ences are made both to the page of the volume where the case is reported, and to the page of the Digest where it is found."—Lane Reporter.

MARTIN AND WHITELEY'S NATIONAL TONIC.

A certain cure for Ague, Fever and Dyspepnia.—In our summer and fall months many sections of our country are prostrated by BILIOUS FEVER, and AGUE and FEVER. It has been our particular study to find out some remedy to stop this dreadful scourge, and think in this TONIC we have effected this great object. It is also, we think, the very best remedy in Dyspepsia, and, if our directions are followed, will not fail to effect a cure. In a letter dated May 23, 1849, our Agent, Mr. very bost remedy in Dyspepsia, and, if our directions are followed, will not fail to effect a cure.

In a letter dated May 23, 1849, our Agent, Mr. Elias Raub, of Wrightsville, York county, Penn., says: I have never known any remedy for Feer and Ague equal to your INVALUABLE NATIONAL TÖNIC. It has given universal satisfaction, and has cured cases of Ague of years' standing, and after the failure of all other medicines made use of. Mr. Henry Beverson, of the same place, says in his certificate dated 22d March, 1849: "I applied to a number of physicians, and also used a variety of the most popular Ague Mixtures at different times, but all without the desired effect, no permanent cure having been effected. I was at length induced, at the recommendation of your worthy agent at this place, to try a bottle of your NATIONAL TONIC, and to my great satisfaction, before I had used half of it, I felt completely cured, though I continued the use of it till I had taken two bot tlea." In a joint certificate from Messrs. Miles Kaho, William Bluckson, and James D.
